Seeking Executive Director

Beth David Synagogue, a dynamic, 400-family conservative congregation located in Greensboro, North Carolina, is seeking a highly qualified person to fill the position of Executive Director.

This person would work in collaboration with the Rabbi, report directly to the Board of Directors, and is generally charged with managing all aspects of synagogue operation. Major areas of responsibility include fundraising and donor development, preparation and oversight of the annual budget, supervision of personnel and a large building complex, and representation of the synagogue in the broader Greensboro community.

Non-profit management experience with particular emphasis on fundraising and development preferred. A more detailed job description is posted with JewishJobs.com. Qualified individuals may submit an introductory letter and resume to dwolf@rfmd.com.
